

~~Wednesday - 12 February 1944~~

1. Prepared memorandum for the Director of CIG on award of the Harmon Trophy.
2. Secured copy of Acheson-Lilienthal Report requested by the Director.

STATINTL

STATINTL

3. Interviewed [REDACTED] who came through office of Senator Myers. Told [REDACTED] it was doubtful that there is a vacancy for one of his qualifications, but that his application would be reviewed by the Personnel Division and that he would be informed of the outcome in about two weeks. Telephoned Mr. Healey and drafted letter to Senator Myers to that effect, promising to let them know the final result. Letter sent 2-13.

STATINTL

STATINTL

3. Interviewed [REDACTED] who came through Representative Bates' office, and sent her to Personnel Division. Received a call from [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] had been given a Personal History Statement to fill out, and that prospects were good for her employment. Telephoned the office of Representative Bates to that effect and promised to let them know the final outcome. STATINTL

STATINTL

4. Interviewed [REDACTED] in whose behalf Miss Shepherd of Congressman Carson's office had telephoned, and sent her to the Personnel Office. The result was the same as in the case of [REDACTED] (see above).

(OVER)

STATINTL

STATINTL

5. ~~Approved For Release 2000/06/26 : CIA-RDP91-00682R000100020035-4~~
Appointed Mr. Perkins of Senator McMahon's staff that there was no vacancy in CIG available for [REDACTED]

STATINTL

6. Discussed with [REDACTED] the problem of mineral attaches and the possibility that General Vandenberg would lend support to the Department of Interior request for appropriations for these attaches.

STATINTL

7. Received call from [REDACTED] of Senator McKellar's office re appointment for interview and arranged to see him at 1000, 13 February.

STATINTL

8. Drafted letter to Representative Bolton, in response to her letter of inquiry, informing her that the application for employment of [REDACTED] had been rejected. Letter dispatched 13 Feb.

9. Drafted letter to Representative Worley in response to his letter to the Director of CIG on behalf of [REDACTED]

Letter dispatched 13 Feb.

STATINTL